Headline:
Rain arriving this afternoon.

Today:
After a cloudy start, there could be some brighter spells for a time around noon. During the afternoon, a band of rain will spread in from the northwest, but the southeast will stay dry for most of the day. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Rain will spread to all parts this evening, gradually clearing by midnight. Clear skies follow with a few showers around the coast. A patchy frost will form where skies clear. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Thursday:
After a bright and cold start on Thursday, cloud cover will increase a little to give sunny spells. Dry for most, but a few showers likely along the west coast. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Wet and windy weather arrives on Friday. A windier day on Saturday with gales and heavy showers, wintry over hills. Drier on Sunday and winds easing.
